

NERVOUSNESS AND BLUES

Symptoms of More Serious Sickness.

Washington Park, Ill.—“I am the mother of four children and have suffered with female trouble, backache, nervous spells and the blues. My children's loud talking and romping would make me so nervous I could just tear everything to pieces and I would ache all over and feel so sick that I would not want anyone to talk to me at times. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Liver Pills restored me to health and I want to thank you for the good they have done me. I have had quite a bit of trouble and worry but it does not affect my youthful looks. My friends say 'Why do you look so young and well?' I owe it all to the Lydia E. Pinkham remedies.” —Mrs. ROBT. STORIEL, Sage Avenue, Washington Park, Illinois.

If you have any symptom about which you would like to know write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for helpful advice given free of charge.

HAPPENINGS of the week IN MISSOURI

Frank H. Farris, Rolla, lawyer and Democratic house leader of the last legislature, and Ray Cummins, former secretary of the Police Relief Association, were indicted by the grand jury at St. Louis in the investigation of the collection of a large fund to obtain the passage of the bill in the last legislature to increase the pay of the police there.

Robert Simpson, world's champion hurdler, and holder of several track records, has joined the University of Missouri unit of the American Field Ambulance service for duty in France. William K. Gardner, son of Governor Gardner, also is a member of this unit.

John McGregor, who belonged to the same Ohio company of which President McKinley was a member during the Civil War, is dead at Hannibal. He was 81 years old.

Provisions of Missouri statutes of 1909, prohibiting railroads from fixing higher freight rates for a short than a long haul, whether such rate discrimination is reasonable or unjust, have been sustained as constitutional by the supreme court.

The Springfield Normal School lost four of its star athletes when, led by Coach A. W. Briggs, the boys went to the naval recruiting station there and enlisted. The new sailors are Horace Robbins, Ralph Sheets, Chester Cartwright and Finis Engleman. A large number of Normal athletes have joined the colors and sports will be crippled next fall.

Clay county now can go ahead with its 1 1/2 million dollar rock road project. The state supreme court has upheld the contention of the county that a bond issue to that amount was legal, according to a telegram from the clerk of the court to J. S. Smarall, Liberty, attorney. The plan is for 202 miles of rock road connecting Liberty and Excelsior Springs, as well as Smithville, Holt, Kearney and Missouri City, with Kansas City.

Dr. L. A. Todd, a member of St. Joseph board of health, died on an interurban car, en route from Kansas City to St. Joseph. He went to Kansas City in the afternoon to be treated for an affection of the ear and died near Camden Point on his way home. He was 45 years old.

Mrs. Lura Lee Scarborough, 45 years old, the wife of the Rev. W. L. Scarborough, pastor of the Methodist church, died at Fulton the other morning.

John Dowling, Edward Carroll and James Ryan, all farmers, were instantly killed recently, four miles north of Hannibal, when struck by Burlington Passenger Train No. 15, St. Louis to Minneapolis. The men were riding in a farm wagon and failed to hear the approaching train as they attempted to cross the track.

To build sentiment for a greater food production and conservation, to aid in the sale of liberty bonds, and in the increasing of the strength of army and navy were some of the projects to which Missouri newspaper men dedicated themselves at the meeting of the Missouri Press Association, in session at Columbia.

Five burned the two-story office of the Mathis Stock Car Company, in the Missouri, Kansas & Texas yards at Sedalia and partly burned three box cars filled with tools and paints. The loss is about $5,000.

The St. Louis Merchants' Exchange has voted to invest $25,000 in the $2,000,000 transportation company being organized to operate boats on the Mississippi river between St. Louis and New Orleans.

James Frisbey, a negro, 45 years old, janitor of the Pilot Grove bank, was murdered at the door of the bank early the other day. He was struck with an iron bar. John Jones, another negro, was arrested.

Orders have been received at St. Louis to recruit for the army signal corps two motor truck companies, two wagon companies, one pack train company and one bakery company.

Edward Felgate has bought the Higginsville Jeffersonian from Lee Shippey, poet and author, who has edited the paper the last eight years. Mr. Felgate has been associated with the paper as country editor, and before coming here was on the Kirksville Express, the Brashear News, the Kirkswood Courier and the St. Louis Globe Democrat.

INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

(By E. O. SELLERS, Acting Director of the Sunday School Course of the Moody Bible Institute.)

LESSON FOR JUNE 3

JESUS BETRAYED AND DENIED.

LESSON TEXT—John 18:1-11, 15-17. GOLDEN TEXT—He was despised and rejected of men.—Isa. 53:3.

In teaching this lesson to some of the younger classes, emphasis might be placed upon the dramatic scene in the garden of Gethsemane, and Peter's denial at the fire. In some of the intermediate classes the scholars might be asked to write short, one-minute essays, describing the scene as though they, themselves, were present. For the adult classes of course the central theme is the way that Christ's followers neglect him today even as the disciples slept in Gethsemane, and betrayed him like Judas or denied him like Peter.

I. The Place of Retreat (vv. 1-3). In his emphasis upon the spiritual grandeur of the deity of Jesus, John does not dwell upon the agony in the garden. He, however, gives us that noblest passage in the New Testament (chs. 14-17), the like of which cannot be found anywhere else in the world's writings. Having spoken these words, Jesus and his disciples went over the Brook Kedron (v. 1) to the garden, there to bear the awful weight of agony that was crushing him (Matt. 26:38), while at the same time he must strengthen his disciples, and fortify them against the coming trials. That this place was a place of frequent resort for Jesus, Judas was aware. It was a sanctuary in which Jesus met the Father, and those who knew him knew it as a place of prayer, and the most likely place to find him at that time of night (v. 3). Rebuffed at Mary's prodigality, Judas had consorted with the priests, and now covetousness is to reap its reward. Judas was not hardened in a day. His greed for money, while at the same time listening to the teachings of Jesus, had gradually hardened his heart.

II. Protecting and Protecting (vv. 4-11). (See Matt. 26; Mark 14; Luke 22). Jesus went forth in order to concentrate the attention of the soldiers upon himself, and to prevent a general attack upon the disciples. In answer to his question, they said they were seeking "Jesus, the Nazarene," a term of contempt which Jesus answered by saying, "I am he." John adds, "and Judas also which betrayed him stood with them." Greed for money, growing into theft and falseness of life, ended with the blackest crime the world has ever known. His salutation sent them backward (v. 6). Perhaps among the officers were some who had failed to arrest him on a former occasion (ch. 7:46), and who were now overawed by his marvelous words and majestic bearing. Again he answered, "Whom seek ye?" (v. 7), and they said, "Jesus of Nazareth," the same words as before, but probably in a changed tone, showing that they were prepared to listen with respect, though certainly not with reverence, to what he might have to offer. What a dramatic picture—the brazenness of sin, Judas who stood among the enemy, and the fearlessness of virtue, Jesus, facing his accusers. Augustine, commenting on this verse, says, "What will he do when he comes as a guest. If he did this when giving himself up as a prisoner?" His act, however, shielded his disciples, for not one of them was to be lost (v. 9 R. V.), and he knew they were not strong enough yet to stand the test of arrest and trial. At this point Peter attempts to defend Jesus (v. 10).

III. Peter Denying (vv. 15-17). As Jesus was led away, his disciples forsook him. They all left him, and fled, but Mark adds that a certain young man followed Jesus. It is conjectured that this young man was Mark. With quickness of action we are now transported to the judgment hall. There we see him bound, with his hands shackled behind his back, and led first to Annas (v. 13), which was an illegal transaction, "as though some reformer should be tried at Tammany hall in New York" (Robert E. Speer). Annas was now very old. From him he was taken to Calaphas, followed by Peter "afar off," now in a different mood than when he smote the high priest's servant's ear. With him was that other disciple (John's way of referring to himself). Now John was known to the high priest, and he went in with Jesus into the palace, but Peter was standing without at the door. Notice the steps of his failure: First, he "slept" in the garden; second, he followed "afar off" (Luke 22:54); third, he "stood" without; fourth, he "sat" in the midst.

No Rest for Him.
“Mrs. Gadder says she is thinking of going to a private sanitarium to rest her ‘poor, tired nerves.’”
“Doesn't she ever suspect that Mr. Gadder has ‘poor, tired nerves?’”
“Oh, no. According to her point of view, Mr. Gadder, a little round-shouldered person, who weighs about a hundred and eighteen pounds, is a cave man who doesn't know what it is to suffer.”

Too Much for Tommie.
“Mother wants you to come right over and see Tommie,” said the little girl.
“What seems to be the matter with him?” asked the doctor.
“He can't swallow. His teacher gave him some big words to spell today, and we think some of 'em got stuck in his throat.”

Adamantine.
She (sweetly)—Five men have proposed to me and I've refused them all, because none of them measured up to my ideal.
Long pause.
He—I know what you're thinking.
She—What?
He—That I'll be the sixth, but you're wrong, kid, you're wrong.
